AGREEMENT REACHED FOR TRUCE TALKS

Nearly 6,000 Take in Fair Wednesday

THIS PANORAMA OF THE FAYETTE County Fairground was taken by Hap Veerkamp from a Sabina Airpark airplane at 2 P. M. Wednesday. It gives some idea of the crowd that packed the ground for the first day's harness horse racing program. The field of 2-year-old pacers can be seen rounding the turn from the back stretch to head for home. The winner, Gay Rose, was in front when the picture was taken. To get low enough to show detail, Veerkamp sacrificed the broader view of the Fairground. Veerkamp,

With a near perfect day for the Fair, almost 6,000 paid the price of admission and "took in" Fayette County's premier exhibition Wednesday.

The opening of the race bill Wednesday afternoon swelled the gate to 2,648, and the popularity of Ward Beam's Daredevil Show brought out a big share of a crowd of 3,282 during the evening.

Exhibitors got awards on their entries in the baked goods, fruits and vegetables, Grange, needlework, flowers, dairy cattle and hog departments Wednesday.

The livestock parade will be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night in front of the grandstand. A heavy turnout of Fair visitors was expected Thursday afternoon, generally considered the best day for Fair attendance. Practically every business in the downtown area will close up to allow employees an opportunity to visit the Fair.

On Friday, top beef entries in a veteran of the second World War, was an aerial photographer with the Eighth Air Force. He accompanied more than a dozen combat missions over Europe and made scores of reconnaissance flights. This was old stuff to him. He used his regular press type Graphic camera with a yellow filter. The picture was taken at 1-400th of a second at lens opening f8. Mrs. Helen Bender Williams of Washington C. H. piloted the plane. The flight lasted about half an hour and circled the Fairground three times.

The Junior Fair will be auctioned off. Tentative plans also call for a parade of the livestock entries by the grandstand. Thursday and Friday nights the main nightly attraction will be the Cavalcade of Stars, a rodeo and circus entertainment.

Saturday night, beginning at 6:30 o'clock, the WLW Midwestern Hayride will be broadcast from in front of the grandstand.

Large crowds have been in attendance in the grandstand for the opening performances of the Ward Beam Daredevil Show. Tuesday night there were 1,436 thrill lovers at the night show, and Wednesday night there were 2,042.

For the horse racing in the afternoon there were 1,876 persons in the stands.

Commie Roundup On in West by FBI

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—The justice department today launched a new roundup of secondary Communist party leaders in Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York City.

The department announced 11 arrests have been made. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said those arrested have been active in Communist party work, largely in California.

The new move against party leaders followed the arrests of 17 eastern seaboard Communists last month.

All of those taken are accused of conspiracy to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the U. S. government.

Taft and Bricker for Soil Conservation Cuts

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—Republican Senators Robert A. Taft and John W. Bricker of Ohio yesterday were listed as voting in a proposal to cut out $80,000,000 of the $280,000,000 authorization for 1952 soil conservation payments to farmers. The proposal was defeated 38 to 37.

Declaring the UN by its reaction to the Communist attack on South Korea "made clear that an aggressor will not be allowed to isolate and destroy his victims one by one," Mr. Truman said:

Basketball Fix Double-cross Now Revealed

Gamblers Picked Up For Own Protection As Scandal Spreads

NEW YORK, July 26—(AP)—Two fixers in the latest college basketball scandal were in protective custody today and a five-state police dragnet was out for one of their accomplices, a principal in a fantastic double-cross among gamblers.

District Attorney Frank Hogan, who yesterday revealed that a sixth school--Toledo University--was involved in the sordid, mushrooming scandal, told the story of the double-cross among the fixers.

It involved Nick Enslis, who rode in the same compartment with an All-America basketball player; his brother Tony, New York contact man; Jack (Zip) West, a former Dutch Schultz associate, and Eli Kaye, the master fixer.

The two Enslis brothers are in protective custody. West, who left New York Tuesday when the

MacArthur's Attack On Administration Viewed as Political

BOSTON, July 26—(AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur has thrown himself into the 1952 presidential fight as a candidate or campaigner—at least in the eyes of Massachusetts politicians.

Both Republican and Democratic leaders see the 71-year-old general as far from "fading away" after he opened a two-day tour of the bay state with a blistering attack on administration policies—foreign and domestic.

And MacArthur himself—while claiming "neither partisan affiliation nor political purposes"—served defiant notice he intends "to raise my voice as loud and as often as I believe it to be in the interest of the American People."

Whether the general hopes to run himself in 1952—or merely take the stump as a champion for his policies—drew divided opinions in this historic countryside. MacArthur chose a bi-partisan Massachusetts legislature—a Republican Senate and a Democratic House—to lash out last night with one of the bitterest attacks on American policy since President Truman fired him from his Far Eastern commands.

Grim-faced and even more determined than when he addressed Congress, the old soldier charged that United States has "no plan"—either for Korea or at home.

Auto Dealer Fined For Evasion of Tax

CINCINNATI, July 26—(AP)—Gerald D. Dellar, 28, who sought to evade full payment of the new sales tax on the purchase of used automobiles, was fined $500 today.

Keller pleaded guilty in common pleas court to charges of perjury and making a false affidavit. He declared at the time he purchased a car that he paid only $100 for it, and paid $3 tax.

Actually, the prosecution charged, Keller paid $1,700 for the automobile and should have paid $51 sales tax.

Judge Ferd Bader suspended $200 of the $500 fine. In passing sentence, he said:

"This is a serious charge. Many others have done the same thing but have never been caught. It is foolish to do this just to save a few dollars. Whoever does it in effect imposes on his friends and neighbors who must pay higher taxes to make up for such losses."

The tax on used car sales was passed by the last legislature.

MARILYN CUNNINGHAM WON top honors in the Junior Fair Style Revue at the Fair Wednesday night. The judges tabbed her the outstanding dressmaker and model in the revue. She is shown above modeling the dress she made as her 4-H Club project for the Fair. The trophy she is holding was presented to her by the A&P Store here. Dick Roush, the manager, made the presentation.

Most of Country Has Hot Weather

CHICAGO, July 26—(AP)—It's going to be hot and humid again today in most parts of the country, the U. S. Weather Bureau said.

But, forecasters said, it is only "normal midsummer weather."

The southeast and central parts of the nation were getting the hottest and most humid weather. The northeastern states and the far west had temperatures near normal.

Readings in the high 80's and 90's were general in most areas yesterday. It was 101 in Mobile, S. D., and Green River, Utah; 103 at Laredo, Tex., and 107 at Yuma, Ariz.

Five-Point Basis For Negotiations Finally Set Up

Troop Withdrawal Covered in Vaguely Stated Agreement

BY ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
UN ADVANCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea, July 26—(AP)—The United Nations and Communists agreed today on exactly what they will talk about in full scale negotiations to end the shooting in Korea.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters said negotiators agreed on a five point agenda (list of subjects to be debated). It includes:

1. Adoption of the agenda.
2. Establishing a buffer zone between opposing armies.
3. Definite arrangements to end the shooting and supervise the truce.
4. Arrangements for exchanging prisoners of war.
5. "Recommendations to the governments of the countries concerned on both sides." (This presumably is a recommendation for subsequent discussion of withdrawing troops from Korea).

Negotiators agreed on the agenda in the shortest session they have yet held. It lasted only 58 minutes.

"Preliminary discussions began immediately after the agreement on the agenda," Ridgway's headquarters announced.

They will go into it more deeply in the 11th session scheduled for 10 A. M. tomorrow.

Merely Initial Step

The announcement emphasized agreement on the agenda "is merely the initial step for the final goal of a military armistice and resultant cease-fire."

The second and third points listed on the agenda offered the biggest hurdles that negotiators will have to overcome.

The first point, adoption of the agenda, is a routine matter similar to approval of minutes of a preceding session.

Setting a buffer zone raises the question of whether it is to be along the present battle lines in North Korea, as the UN wishes, or along the 38th Parallel as the Reds want.

These two possible emarcation lines are 20 or 30 miles apart in some places. In settling this single point, negotiators will outline the exact position to be assumed by each army "so as to establish a demilitarized zone as the basic condition for cessation of hostilities in Korea."

The third point is the most complex and reaches to the heart of Communist sensitiveness to any

Red 'Angel' Refuses Key Probe Question

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—Frederick Vanderbilt Field, millionaire "angel" of left-wing causes, refused today to tell a Senate committee whether he posted bonds for Communist leaders.

"I think I should refuse to answer..." Field said in a voice barely audible in the packed Senate hearing room.

Field was brought before the senators from New York where he is serving a 90-day jail term for contempt of court. That sentence was given him for refusing to tell a federal judge who contributed to the civil rights congress bail fund.

The fund posted $80,000 bond for four Communists who skipped after losing an appeal to the supreme court from convictions with seven others of plotting to teach the overthrow of the government by violence.

Two officials from the Federal Bureau of Prisons brought Field before the Senate internal security committee.

Hearings by the senators are directed at determining whether there have been subversive influences on U. S. Far Eastern policy.

Brothers Meet Head-on After Motorcycle Trips

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

New screen doors have been erected at both front and back doors of police headquarters, but not to keep out the flies.

The real purpose of the doors is to keep out night bugs and moths, which have been in the habit of entering the open doors and windows and infesting the office at night.

While the screen doors will turn moths and night bugs, as well as certain flies, the police expect to open the doors many times to allow "bar flies" to enter.

I still have inquiries about that old spur of the Pennsylvania Railroad, then the Cincinnati and Muncie Valley, which ran from the main tracks of the Pennsylvania at a point north of the Pennington Bakery and into the Fairgrounds, about 200 yards west of the Meriwether Motor garage.

A shuttle train with two or three coaches operated between the station on South Main Street and the Fairgrounds. The train was backed to the grounds.

The fare was 10 cents each way, and of course, to make the spur a paying venture (which it never was) a great many fares were necessary.

With the coming of the automobile soon after the turn of the century, the spur was abandoned and torn up.

When the train was operated to and from the Fairgrounds, a large number of persons came to the Fair by train.

Livestock Slaughter Quotas Now Tottering

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—Senator Maybank (D-SC) said today he is confident Congress will move to "block meat black markets" by scrapping the flat ban it voted on livestock slaughter quotas.

Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) told reporters he will help lead a fight to put such a ban into effect. He said scuttling or softening it "wouldn't help curb black markets at all."

Price Ceilings On Food Raised

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—Some important price ceilings were bulging upward today despite the "no-change-in-July" policy fixed by Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle.

For consumers, OPS had announcement of a "slight" increase in the general price level of all major canned vegetables of the 1951 pack.

For industry, the bad news was a three-cent increase in copper refined from imported ores. OPS clung to its ceiling on domestic copper.

The new regulation covering the billion-dollar canned vegetable industry was issued last night. It now affects only canned green peas, but snap beans, lima beans, corn, beets and tomatoes will be included later.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported, meanwhile, that its cost-of-living index dropped from May to June. The decline 0.1 percent from May 15 to June 15, was the first decline since February, 1950.

The index on June 15 was 185.2 percent of the average prices prevailing between 1935 and 1939. That was 8.8 percent higher than the index of June, 1950, just before the outbreak of the Korean conflict.

COLUMBUS, July 26—(AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill today said county employees are not entitled to a two-weeks vacation with pay until they have been on the job for one year.

Woman Candidate Backs President

MC KEESPORT, Pa., July 26—(AP)—Mrs. Verna Buchanan, steadfast in her determination to back President Truman to the hilt when she becomes a member of Congress, is ready to be sworn in "just as soon as I get word from Washington."

Mrs. Buchanan is the new representative from Pennsylvania's highly industrialized 33rd Congressional District. Running on the Democratic ticket in a special election in the Pennsylvania primary Tuesday, Mrs. Buchanan easily won the right to succeed her late husband, Rep. Frank Buchanan, who died last April.

Polio on Increase

This County Falling Short in Blood Quota

Fayette County is short over 200 pints of blood in meeting its quota for the Red Cross Blood Mobile Unit for this year to date.

It should not be necessary constantly to emphasize the importance of giving blood in this or any other community. It is furnished free to patients needing it, by the Red Cross for our own Memorial Hospital, and in other hospitals where a patient comes from a county which is participating in the blood program.

In addition, blood given here and elsewhere, is going to our boys in military service. Many a life has been saved as a result of this life-giving blood being ready for quick use whether on the field of battle or in a hospital.

The next appearance of the Red Cross Blood Mobile Unit here will be on August 22.

Any person in good physical health between the ages of 18 and 60 can give a pint of blood safely.

Whole blood, such as is sought by this blood unit, cannot be made synthetically. It must come from human beings.

If the Fayette County blood program is to be successful the eligible people of this community must provide this blood so badly needed.

Many in this city and county have done their share and more. There are others, without good reason, who refuse to cooperate.

The Professional Nurses Association of Fayette County is preparing to make an urgent appeal to the good citizens of this city and county, for each to donate a pint of blood on the next regular visit of the Red Cross Blood Mobile Unit here on August 22.

This group has offered to lend its full assistance to make the program a success here. It already has done much toward this end, but the fact that Fayette County is not meeting its quota by a large amount, has caused these nurses to help the Red Cross campaign by special efforts of their own. We all should help.

Two-faced Money

A Kansas banker was nonplussed when he found a package of bills received from Washington contained a number that bore the denomination $5 on one side and $10 on the other.

It was a new idea even for Kansas, which has been productive of novel ideas. Washington quickly disposed of it as a freak, a mistake in printing such as had never been known to occur before. But the thing offers possibilities that may appeal to our national legislators when they hear of it. Mayhap some one will propose a new law to make this double-value currency legitimate and a regular government product.

Those who wonder whether Russia or the United States would be the winner in a peace treaty can find a clue in what happened at Yalta, Teheran and Potsdam.

Jet plane has been flown at the rate of 1,300 miles per hour, but runs out of fuel in four minutes at that speed. There may be a clue here as to why the family jalopy's gas tank is always empty.

When Death Comes to a Buffalo

By Hal Boyle

HOT SPRINGS, S. D. —(P)—Buffalo hunting today is easier than it was in the old days -- for everybody except the buffalo. They bagged one near here the other day. And the verdict of a number of reservation Indians who went along for the ride was this:

"We used to do it better before the palefaces came."

The hunt was held in Wind Cave National Park, on whose rolling grassy acres the largest buffalo herd in the world grazes. Some 150 Sioux Indians came here from their Pine Ridge Reservation as a sideshow attraction at the "Miss South Dakota" beauty pageant.

One of their rewards was to be the carcass of a fresh-killed buffalo, the meat they love best. Their leader, Chief Ben Chief, president of the Sioux tribal council, and three of his braves were invited to the hunt. Clad in tribal regalia, they mounted their steeds -- a two-ton wrecker -- and gravely rode to the scene. There two National Park Rangers already had weeded an old bull from the herd.

One Ranger dismounted from a small pickup truck, knelt and fired at close range with a high-powered rifle. The bullet thudded against the buffalo's skull with a sound as if it had hit a granite boulder. He shook his head, and loped across the hills.

The Rangers pursued him in the truck, dismounting time after time to fire at him. But the bullets seemed only bee stings to the old bull.

By then they were out of sight of the Indians, but they could hear and count the number of ineffective shots -- and they did.

"Six--seven--eight--" Their stolid faces creased in copper grins.

"Nine--ten--eleven--" The valleys reverberated with the white man's futile bullets and the whoops of laughing Indians. The old bull circled back toward the herd. The buffaloes began angrily to paw the ground, the calves crowded close to their mothers, and a great rumble as of distant thunder arose from the herd.

Before they could stampede, however, the truck turned back the wounded bull. He disappeared over a knoll. The Indians began to count again:

"Twelve -- thirteen--fourteen." And then their counting stopped. After a 3 1/2 mile chase, the old bull had sunk in death like deflated balloon.

"We used to do it with one arrow -- never more than three," said Harry Jumping Bull.

The red-faced Rangers explained they usually dropped their buffaloes with a single shot, too. The Indians listened politely.

The 1,800 pound buffalo carcass was hoisted aboard the wrecker. The Indians then stuck arrows into it -- to decorate it for the tourists as they drove back through town, beating a victory drum to announce the end of a successful hunt.

Back in their camp in the middle of town the Indians dumped the remains of the old bull on to skin him with steel knives.

"In the old days we used stone knives," said Chief Ben Chief. "We still have some -- but we forgot to bring them."

"Skinning buffalo is hard work," said another Indian, natty in a new green cowboy hat.

Chief Ben Chief explained the meat from the carcass would be divided among "those who took part in the festival." Squads then would cut it into strips, cook some of it immediately and cure the rest in the sun for use later.

As the skimmers hacked the tough hide from the old bull a group of Indian braves, squaws and young boys on one side of it pranced and stomped in an ancient hunting dance to the music of a tired white man's drum. On the other side of the old bull a young Indian boy sang modern hillbilly songs to the spectators who had paid 50 cents each to enter the camp.

A young white girl about 12 years old looked at the bloody buffalo -- only five hours removed from life and green grass -- and said disappointed to another young girl:

"I thought they were going to chop off its head with an ax." Yes, buffalo hunting has changed.

Approaching Treaty with Japan

By George Sokolsky

No partisan politics should be permitted to interfere with the signing and ratification of the proposed Dulles treaty with Japan. This is a crucial document in the solution of our Asiatic problems. If the United States can have a line of friendly and Allied nations, running unbrokenly from Japan to Australia and New Zealand, we should, at any rate, not be in peril of having the west coast of territorial United States as our first line of defense.

The "Hongkong Standard," on June 27, called attention to the indisputable fact that the Communists did not start the Korean war merely to possess Korea. This newspaper said editorially: "The attack on South Korea by the Communists, even if it had been successful, would not have been an end in itself. It was obviously the intention of Russia to have all of Korea occupied as a springboard against Japan. The unexpected decision of the United Nations to defend the Republic of Korea by an international force may have upset Moscow's immediate plan of operation, but it has in no way discouraged Moscow from trying to conquer Japan through its satellites."

This same newspaper, close to the scene and often expressive of Nationalist Chinese views, further says:

"The conquest of Japan may take either of two forms. The first is an uprising in Japan with the ready response of the Japanese prisoners of war now under Moscow's command and of the Korean and Chinese Communists. This was perhaps the original plan. The other is an open invasion of Japan by the Chinese Communists under the pretext that Peking has been barred from participating in the Japanese peace treaty or under any other pretext which Communist ingenuity may conceive of."

The state department is pursuing sound policy in going ahead with the Japanese treaty without waiting for Russian approval. That approval would never be forthcoming by ordinary negotiation; it is doubtful whether there will be Russian participation in the San Francisco conference. For no matter how you look at it, the restoration of Japan among the nations and its rebuilding as a military base Ipso Facto weakens the power of Soviet Russia in Asia.

Japan had, prior to its defeat in 1945, a marked infiltration among the Chinese. Some of the most notable followers of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen were pro-Japanese in the sense that they feared Russia more than Japan and they favored an "Asia for the Asiatics" movement. War-time propaganda painted Wang Ching-Wei as a Japanese puppet, but, in the history of the Chinese movement toward liberty and independence, no figure was closer to Sun Yat-Sen or more trusted by him. I was associated with Sun Yat-Sen many years and once carried a message from him to like-minded leaders in Japan.

It is impossible to believe that such a poignant relationship established over a period of 30 years has altogether been killed by war. Many of the older Chinese military men studied in Japan or in Japanese schools in China, particularly in Manchuria. The Chinese Communists are aware of this strong Japanese influence and have been liquidating hundreds of thousands of Chinese who have been under either Japanese or American, especially Christian, cultural influence. However, they would have to kill off many millions of Chinese, and at great speed, even to scratch the surface.

Besides, the Korean war has proved to be an almost fatal error from the Chinese Communist standpoint. They did not expect any resistance and certainly not the force of the resistance which first General MacArthur and then General Ridgway produced. Had they succeeded quickly in Korea, they would undoubtedly have pushed into Burma and eventually Siam (Thailand). The significance of Burma is rice. If Soviet China could control the rice of Burma and subsequently Siam, it could reduce the hunger in China and even raise the standard of living of the Chinese people. As it is, every private report I have had from China speaks of hunger.

The standard of living of the Chinese is so low that the lessening of the rice supply has always produced revolution. It is internal revolution -- what nowadays is called guerilla warfare -- that is the real hope for China.

The Japanese have had a long and competent experience at that. A restored and independent Japan must be a great factor in the affairs of China. That country possesses extraordinary able men, even now. (Copyright, 1951, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Laff-A-Day

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Cirrhosis, or hardening of the liver, is a condition in which normal, hardworking liver cells are replaced with scar tissue which can perform no function. This disease has long been associated with heavy drinking, but it can also occur in non-drinkers as well.

In former years, there was very little which could be done about it, but today it is being treated most successfully by means of diet and the new drugs, methionine and choline.

Dilated Veins Present

One of the marked effects of liver damage is the collection of fluid in the tissues and abdominal cavity. Varicose or dilated veins are frequently present in the area around the rectum as well as at the point where the esophagus joins the stomach.

In treating this condition, it is important that the patient have as much rest in bed as possible to lower the demands upon the liver. The patient should employ a diet high in protein, starches and sugars in order to protect the liver against further injury. The amount of fat intake should be kept at a minimum, but should not be absolutely restricted.

The newer drugs, mentioned earlier, have been used very successfully in preventing injury to the liver. In very severe cases, the giving of plasma or albumin into a vein may be advisable. The amount of salt in the diet should be diminished.

Fluid in Abdomen

When the patient has a great amount of fluid in the abdomen, it may be advisable to remove it by means of a needle. Sometimes the mercurial diuretics, which stimulate kidney action, are used, but they are rarely needed if the salt intake is kept at a bare minimum.

It is important for the patient with cirrhosis to discontinue the use of alcoholic beverages.

If adequate nutrition is maintained, if the liver is not too greatly damaged and if complications, such as bleeding from the varicose veins of the esophagus, which may occur in this condition, do not take place, the patient has an excellent chance of living a fairly normal life.

The World Today

BL JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, July 26 —(AP)— This week the House votes on money for the State Department, which includes money for its "Voice of America."

The Republicans, banging away at the State Department and Secretary Acheson for years, have made a special target of the "Voice."

They're not talking of abolishing it. They want to cut down the money for it. They say they don't like the way it's run.

Further, they don't like the people running it. They call them nincompoops and fuzzy-minded, not usual phases in attacks on the State Department.

The "Voice" is part of the department's information and propaganda program intended to win friends and influence people abroad.

The "Voice" broadcasts daily in 45 languages around the world, providing news, features and comments on world affairs.

The State Department also maintains libraries abroad, distributes films in what countries it can, and sends out nightly 10,000 words of world news by wireless to 160 American missions abroad. The libraries, films and news bulletins are particularly useful in reaching people in the Communist countries. Being seen using them would be dangerous if not fatal.

So the "Voice" broadcasts through the iron curtain are this country's best hope of getting some information, news and American propaganda to the people living under Communism.

Still, no one can say how effective the "Voice" is in reaching those people. All you can ever get is guesses for the obvious reason that the State Department can't take a radio audience poll in Communist countries.

The number of people behind the curtain who'd dare listen, or could listen if they dared, is probably comparatively small. That's only a guess, of course.

But, for one thing, the Russians put a lot of effort into jamming the "Voice" to keep the people behind the curtain from hearing. And in Russia it is estimated that there are only 5,000,000 receiving sets.

The Republicans not only don't like the people running the information-propaganda program but they don't like what the "Voice" is doing.

For instance, Rep. Taber, New York Republican, says the "nincompoops" and the fuzzy-minded people should be cleaned out, along with Secretary Acheson, who is the main Republican target anyway.

And Rep. Clarence Brown, Ohio Republican, made a long speech in the House this week, saying of the "Voice":

"The opinion is almost universal that there is entirely too much boasting about American living standards, American luxuries, and American big-heartedness."

But when you cut through the Republicans' attack and the Democrats' defense—and plenty of them are rising to defend the "Voice"—the basic question sticks out:

Just what is the "Voice" trying to do with the people behind the iron curtain, living under Communism? It can be summed up this way:

It can hardly urge them to outright revolt against their Com-

Best Competition Among Guernseys

Individual exhibitors so dominated classes for three breeds in the dairy cattle show that there was really competition only among the Guernsey breeders at this year's Fair here.

Curfew Ordinance Is Effective Here

Police have rounded up a number of youngsters under 17 years of age, who were caught on the streets after 11 P. M. without an escort, since the curfew ordinance was passed several weeks ago.

Under the ordinance all boys and girls under 17 years of age who are not accompanied by a parent, guardian, or other adult must be off the streets by 11 P. M. or they will be taken to police headquarters.

Many of those taken in charged by the police have been held at police headquarters until their parents arrived. The parents were told to exercise more supervision or face the court for permitting their children to run at large at night.

A record is kept of all youngsters rounded up, but so far there have been no repeaters.

The ordinance is keeping many youngsters off the streets and has reduced the mischief done at night.

Egg Price Rise Shows Demand

Vegetable Market Center of Interest

(By The Associated Press)
Retail egg prices turned upward this week in many stores, and scattered reductions of one to three cents a pound in the more expensive cuts of beef were reported in some markets as consumer price resistance persisted.

But on the whole, food shoppers will find protein food prices little changed this week compared with last.

In fresh produce departments, lettuce, canteloupes, and honeydew and honeyball melons were down sharply in many cities east of the Missouri-Kansas flood zone as shipments delayed by the flood reached markets in somewhat less than top condition.

Agriculture department market analysts urged storekeepers to promote tomatoes from nearby farms this week, saying current arrivals were of excellent, meaty quality. Cabbage, peppers, plums and lima beans were a little higher. Sweet potatoes were relatively high because the old crop was about cleaned up and the new crop was not yet well along.

The rise in egg prices was seasonal, but also reflected brisk demand. At the beginning of June, storage stocks were second-lowest since 1915 for that month.

Government food economics recommended budget-wise shoppers look into the prices of pullet eggs for better buys, since supplies of the smaller eggs are increasing. "Small eggs," by U. S. consumer standards, should weigh at least 18 ounces a dozen, against 24 ounces for "large."

for thrifty buying during the coming month was topped by locally-grown vegetables like snap beans, beets, cabbage, sweet corn, summer squash and tomatoes.

Also included: Potatoes, plums, grapes, sour cherries, lemons, limes, processed citrus products, canned apples and canned apple-sauce, broiler and fryer chickens, fresh and frozen fish, cottage cheese and peanut butter.

It's All in Day's Brains! Princess Rides in Front Seat Just Because She Likes View

LONDON, July 26—(AP)—"Hah," says the editor. He has that glitter in his eye. He is being a genius. "Twice in a row Princess Margaret rides in front with the chauffeur."

All right, says the reporter, so she rides with the chauffeur.

"So she's learning to drive a car," the editor explains. He is getting excited. "Pretty soon, princess takes driving test. Get photos. Human interest. Like princess, like commoner."

"Get on the wire to Buckingham Palace, fast, before somebody else thinks of this," he says.

The reporter calls up the palace spokesman. He points out Princess Margaret is riding with the chauffeur when she leaves last Friday for a weekend at the royal lodge in Windsor. She is likewise when the chauffeur (a gray haired old pappy type) drives her home today.

"That," the reporter tells the palace spokesman, "cannot be mere coincidence. Obviously the princess plans to buy a car and is learning to drive. You will, of course, confirm this?"

"The princess," says the spokesman, "learned how to drive four years ago, in Scotland, at the age of 17. She took and passed the driving test at that time and received a license, which she still holds, to chauffeur automotive vehicles for non-commercial purposes."

"Then why," the reporter shrewdly asks, "is she riding in the front seat with the chauffeur?"

"Possibly," replies the palace spokesman, "because she likes the view from up there."

The editor broods. "Anybody notice," he says, "who wins the fifth at Folkestone?"

Basketball Scandal

English boys were picked up, is the object of the police search. Kaye is free in $50,000 bail on a charge of fixing City College of New York games last season. Double-cross Storm

Here is the story of the double-cross as related by Hogan:

Kaye assigned Nick English, a former University of Kentucky football player, to the Bradley University team. English not only paid frequent visits to the Peoria, Ill., campus, but at one time rode in the same compartment on a railroad train with All-America player Gene Melchiorre, who along with four of his teammates, has admitted participating in game-fixing during the 1949-50 season.

Before each Bradley game, Nick would telephone his brother in New York, who would relay the details of the fix to West. West paid $1,000 for the information. The West-English arrangement was unknown to Kaye.

Bradley was favored by six or seven points against St. Joseph's in Philadelphia, and the deal was that Melchiorre and his team would win by a narrower margin.

Persons who bet on St. Joseph would win their wagers.

West was let in on the deal, but when Kaye found considerable money was being bet on St. Joseph's he decided that the word must have leaked out and that there was a double-cross on.

'Lesson' in Gambling

Accordingly, Kaye told Nick they would switch their bets and "teach the other guys a lesson." Kaye then relayed his new instructions to the Bradley players—that they were supposed to win by more than the point spread. Nick called his brother in New York, who told West of the switch. But West said he couldn't change his bets.

West and two of his men took Tony to the West apartment in Brooklyn, and holding him prisoner, instructed him to call Convention Hall in Philadelphia where the game was being played, and talk to his brother.

Tony did, telling Nick his life was being threatened. Nick then bravely dashed to the Convention Hall floor, caught Melchiorre's eye and turned his thumbs down, indicating that the plans again were changed—the team was to win under the point spread. Thinking the orders were coming from Kaye, Melchiorre nodded.

Bradley won, 64-60, under the spread, and Kaye, still unmindful of what was going on, lost heavily betting on Bradley to win by more than six or seven points. West won his bets.

In addition to Melchiorre, Aaron

Preece, Jim Kelly, Bill Mann and Bud Grover of Bradley have admitted complicity.

Besides the Bradley players and three from Toledo—William Walker, Robert McDonald and Carlo Muzi—19 from four New York schools have been named as being implicated in the fixing of more than 25 games.

Kaye also was involved in the Toledo fix. The players held their winning margin to only three points in beating Niagara, 73-70, last year. Three minutes before the end, Toledo led by 17 points. Kaye gave $1,750 to Walker, who, in turn, distributed $250 each to McDonald and Muzi and kept the remainder for himself.

No charges have been placed against the three Toledo players, since there is no law against bribing amateur players in Ohio. Melchiorre, Mann, Preece, Grover and Kelly, however, have been placed in technical custody in Peoria.

BARBERTON LADY LOST 60 LBS. IN 2 MONTHS

"I can proudly say that I have lost 60 lbs. in a period of 2 months since taking Renel and my dress size has changed from size 32 to a 16 or 18," writes Mrs. Louise Cannady, Box 11 A, Summit St. Ext., Barberton, Ohio. "At age 28 I am now my normal weight, and have new vitality. No wonder so many people like myself are pleased with the results they have received from Renel." It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Renel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Insist on genuine Renel.

Curb Considered For Big Business

Board of Directors Center of Inquiry

NEW YORK, July 26 —(AP)—The question whether a clique of insiders runs the big business of this country through interlocking directorates is up again in Congress.

And tied with it is the question whether a corporation should be run by a board of directors made up exclusively of its own executives. Some contend it's better to have the board heavily weighted with "outside" directors from other corporations and financial institutions to keep an eye on how the affairs of the company are being run by management.

Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) has a bill in the Senate to prohibit multiple directorships in large corporations -- that is, to prevent the executives of one corporation sitting on the board of one or more other companies. Like other opponents of interlocking directorates, he considers that these directors can interlock the affairs of their companies and stifle competition.

As examples, the opponents point to the board of a large steel company which has representatives of three railroads. They note transportation is one of the steel industry's important problems. And four oil companies are represented on the board of one of the nation's largest banks known for its close financial ties with the oil industry.

It Looks Sinister
Opponents of interlocking directorates -- a whipping boy of the 1930's -- profess to see something sinister in this. Those who believe in the system say it is only natural, and to the benefit of all, that those with similar interests and special skills should tackle problems together. They insist those who have no special knowledge of the business make poor directors.

Senator Humphrey has estimated his bill's prohibitions would affect one or more directors in about 200 leading manufacturing and mining corporations and 25 retail corporations. It applies to companies with capital, surplus and undivided profits exceeding $1 million.

But the American Institute of Management of New York is advising its members today interlocking directorates are held by some 10,000 persons in 16,000 leading corporations. And it holds all might come under the bill's ban.

The institute contends companies with "inside" boards will be favored. Those choose all, or most, of the directors from the ranks of their own executives. The bill would leave these boards intact.

Companies with "outside" directors not otherwise connected with the firm, save perhaps as owners of stock, would suffer most. Banks and insurance companies have the largest percentage of outside directors, but many large industrial and utility corporations have a majority of outside men on their boards. These outside directors usually have posts with other corporations, and thus know the needs, plans and special interests of both.

Flower Show Honors Close

If the competition in the flower exhibits at the Fair had been a horse race, it could well be said that Mrs. Ray Shoemaker with 10 firsts, Mrs. Loren C. Wilson with nine and Mrs. J. A. Kearney with eight wound up in a photo finish.

Adding variety to the flower show were the displays of nine garden clubs.

The Pic-Pay club's exhibit was awarded top honors by Mrs. Wade Cozad of Lancaster, the judge of the show. Following in the placement of ribbons were Twin Oaks, Busy Bee, Mari-Lee, Washington, Town & Country, Buckeye, Fayette and Posey.

Infant Diarrhea Is Dread Killer In San Antonio

Toll Is Heaviest
In 'Death Triangle'
Of Mexican Section

SAN ANTONIO, July 26 —(AP)—A hundred times a year or more, a baby's body is buried in this historic Texas city and public health officials put another mark in the "infant diarrhea" column.

Polio is much less a dread word than infant diarrhea in the south Texas commercial and cultural center of almost half a million people.

Nearly 2,000 babies have died of infant diarrhea here in the last ten years. The 1951 death toll at mid-July was 98. Another 593 babies were under treatment.

Public health authorities blame it on the very things that make San Antonio one of the nation's most colorful cities—its heavy Latin-American population and its old buildings and homes.

Magnificent, modern buildings stand side by side with 200-year-old structures of the Spanish colonial system. Through the downtown business section winds the picturesque San Antonio River.

Ninety-five per cent of the diarrhea cases occur in families of Mexican descent. San Antonio has one of the nation's heaviest concentrations of people of Mexican extraction.

'Death Triangle'

Most of the hearers are routed to "death triangle," a 12-square mile area on San Antonio's west side. There, packed close together, is the bulk of the Latin-American population.

The 1950 census showed that in the San Antonio metropolitan area, 28 per cent of renter-occupied buildings were dilapidated or have no running water. The national figure is about 21 per cent.

This year San Antonio, with almost 100 deaths already counted, may lead the nation in infant diarrhea fatalities. There were only 104 such deaths here in all of 1950.

The fight against ignorance and unsanitary conditions is made more difficult by the language barrier. Many of the Latin-Americans do not speak English.

The city is trying to do something about it.

Twenty field nurses from the city's 11 health districts conduct classes at city clinics where mothers and expectant mothers hear lectures and see demonstrations on infant care.

The nurses also go to community centers, and gather groups in the backyards in the "death triangle" area.

There are diarrhea wards in three of the city's hospitals.

During the peak diarrhea season, police safety patrol car and a Spanish-speaking public health nurse broadcast instructions in the stricken areas.

Since 1947, when the disease rate receded to 90 deaths and 234 cases, no year has passed with fewer than 100 infant diarrhea deaths.

Educational Programs

Health officials have been sponsoring educational programs since 1948, when 282 deaths and 917 cases were reported.

House-to-house checks of 40 blocks by public health nurses resulted in the deaths dropping to 160 in 1949. The nurses examined babies and told mothers how to prevent the disease. This house-to-house program was also carried out in 1950, when deaths dropped to 104.

Dr. Austin E. Hill, San Antonio's director of public health, says the check had to be dropped this year because of a shortage of nurses and the pressure of other health projects. He said cessation of the house-to-house work is partially responsible for the climbing toll this year.

Infant diarrhea peak seasons are in February, March, April and November. But Dr. Hill said the educational program should be on a year-around basis.

Infants are usually exposed by contact with other members of the family who pick up the disease from bacteria-ridden food and water. For this reason, public health people try to treat entire families.

THE BOY OR GIRL WHO HAS THE BEST HEREFORD STEER in the 4-H cattle show will get, not only glory, the satisfaction of a feeding job well done and a fat check when it is sold, but also a purebred Hereford heifer to start another year's project or possibly to start a herd of his or her own. For the past five years the Fayette County Hereford Association has been offering this prize to the owner of the champion steer of that breed and this is a continuation of that policy. This year, the heifer prize was offered by Walter Seifried, owner of Fayette Hereford Farm on the Robinson Road. Seifried and the heifer are shown in the above Record-Herald photo.

One Baby Killed, 2 Wounded, By Father Fed Up with Looking After Them Since Wife Left

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 26—(AP)—When Raymond Wilson Conley was forced to stay home yesterday to mind his three children, mere babes-in-arms, he reached a desperate decision.

And, as police reconstructed the tragedy, Conley went and got his shotgun.

He walked into the bedroom where his three infants were. Then, police quoted Conley as admitting in a signed statement, he shot his oldest child, three-year-old Wilson Lee Conley.

Conley tried a second shot, but the gun jammed. So, he told police, he picked up a knife and cut the throats of three-months-old Linda Sue and 18-months-old William Emery Conley.

Afterwards, the 39-year-old shipping clerk walked to his telephone, dialed police headquarters and blurted:

"I've killed my three children."

The admission turned out to be inaccurate. When police arrived at Conley's two-story house across the street from the city's railroad yards they found one of the infants dead, but the other two still alive.

Wilson Lee, suffering a severe stomach wound, and little Linda Sue were rushed to a hospital. They were given blood transfusions and under went immediate operations. Early today, a physician said they were doing "fairly well," but were still in critical condition.

The other child, William Emery, died of the throat slash. He was found in his crib.

Police charged Conley with murder. As for a motive, they said Conley apparently had gotten fed up with looking after the children since he and his wife separated last month.

Yesterday, Conley sifter failed to show up, so they had to stay home from his job with a law book publishing firm.

Pilgrimage to Mecca To Be Banned by Egypt

CAIRO, Egypt, July 26 —(AP)—The newspaper Al Misri said today that Egypt will ban her Moslems from making the annual pilgrimage to Mecca because of reports of bubonic plague in Yemen and Saudi Arabia.

The paper said 90 deaths from plague had been reported from Saudi Arabia and that another 200 cases of the disease were reported in Yemen, on the southwest tip of the Arabian peninsula.

Montana Town May Skip Voting

It's too Expensive
Without Contest

By J. D. HOLMES
WALKERVILLE, Mont., July 26 —(AP)—This early day copper mining town, a suburb of Butte, skipped its election again this year.

The money it saved, about $1,100, was earmarked for a new fire alarm system.

Unusual? Yes. But not for Walkerville, which has had just three city elections in 30 years.

Walkerville's system of governing its 1,629 inhabitants has made the hilltop community unique among municipalities.

The system dates back to 1921 when Walkerville became the nation's first city to pass an election "because it would just be a waste of the taxpayers' money."

There was only one primary candidate for each job that year. Since an election would settle nothing, the town council decided to skip it. Petitions were circulated and the residents agreed.

Still No Opposition

There still was no opposition at general election time. Petitions again got electorate approval to dispense with a formal vote.

To round out the novel experiment, retiring aldermen declared their seats vacant and reappointed themselves at a reorganization meeting.

As the years went by the plan developed.

When a mayor resigned or died, the council simply elevated its president to the job and chose a new alderman.

W. H. Sweet, mayor when the unorthodox economy plan began, was followed by J. H. Hill, Henry Sullivan and William James Lyle.

all advanced from the council presidency.

Eighteen years passed before Walkerville had another election and William Cook became mayor. He died in office and Council President Harold O'Neill succeeded him.

James R. Shea, the present mayor, was elected in 1941 and again in 1947. He has served since without election.

At first, candidates filed petitions for reelections, notices were posted and other required steps taken. Then, if no opposition showed, the election was skipped.

Incumbents Just Go On

Now, after years of polishing to cut out all expense, candidates don't file unless there is opposition. Incumbents automatically retain their offices.

That explains how this city, which owes no money, saves itself about $1,100 a year which aldermen earmark for whatever project seems most important at the time.

"We run it like a family budget," is the way Mayor Shea puts it.

The aldermen, by the way, work in nearly perfect harmony.

Council records show that only two dissenting votes have been cast in eight years. And one of the dissenters, at the next session, announced:

"Fellows, I've been thinking it over the last couple of weeks. I've decided to make it unanimous."

When lesser cars look for mechanics-- your Packard is just broken in!

As the mileage indicator climbs to the higher brackets, most car owners do one of two things. Either trade in their cars, or spend plenty on overhaul.

But not you!

When that chunk of mileage has rolled under your wheels, chances are your Packard is still rolling along as sweetly, as steadily as the day you took title. That's a pretty light-hearted feeling to have these days.

For an important example of what we mean, take an inside look at a Packard Thunderbolt engine. You probably already know it's the highest compression eight in America. But what you may not know is that there are up to 25% fewer working parts than in engines of comparable power!

Simplicity of design, plus traditional Packard precision engineering and workmanship, have won for Packard the greatest durability record in motordom. (Fact: of all Packards built in the last 52 years, over 50% are still in service!)

Zimmerman Best In Fruit Exhibits

Willard Kirk's entries in the vegetable exhibits took eight blue ribbons, but there was plenty of keen competition from half a dozen other exhibitors at the Fair this year.

Veiling for honors with Kirk in the vegetable exhibits were David Whiteside, Mrs. James Baughn, Corwin Carr, Charles Oswald and Mrs. Gerald Stephenson.

In the fruit display, the Zimmermans, Miss Clara and her brother Raymond carried off 10 first place awards to dominate the show.

Here is the way M. R. Powell and K. L. Arnold, the judges, placed the ribbons:

Trade stagnant heat for breezes sweet!

Inexpensive Attic Fan, Ventilating System brings cooling relief all through the house

Does summer heat make your whole house seem hot as an attic? Here's a simple, inexpensive way to drive out the heat and draw in fresh cooler air from outside. When heat waves come, when it's too hot to sleep, an attic fan ventilating system will bring new comfort to the whole family.

On sultry, sticky nights when there's not a breath of air stirring, an attic fan creates a gentle, refreshing electric breeze. It forces stale hot air from the house and replaces it—every two minutes—with a moving breeze of cooler air fresh from outdoors.

In a matter of minutes you feel 10 to 15 degrees more comfortable. Why let exhausting heat rob you of comfort and rest? Installation of an attic fan for summer comfort is simple, practical—and probably costs a lot less than you think. As for operating cost, your low electric service rate makes that a matter of pennies. See your heating and ventilating dealer about an attic fan ventilating system.

Baptist Minister Is Election Victor, Grandma Wins too

PHILADELPHIA, July 26 —(AP)—

The Rev. Dr. Daniel A. Poling was chosen Republican candidate for mayor of Philadelphia, but his easy victory was less of a surprise in the Pennsylvania primary than the apparent nomination by Democrats of Michael A. Musmanno for the state supreme court.

Fighting a lone-world battle against democratic organization, the 55-year-old Musmanno, judge at the war crimes trial at Nuernberg, appeared to have upset Justice Grover C. Ladner, 65, who had the backing of nearly all the state's Democratic leaders.

Musmanno, a Pittsburgh judge, had also achieved national prominence by his efforts to jail western Pennsylvania Communists.

Dr. Poling, 66-year-old Baptist minister and longtime head of the Christian Endeavor movement in the United States, scored a lopsided victory over Walter P. Miller, 49, paper box manufacturer, in the Republican mayoralty contest.

In another contest of nationwide interest, a pert grandmother won a sweeping victory for the Democrats today in a special congressional election. She is Mrs. Vera Buchanan, 48, who will

Suspect Grilled On Store Killing

CINCINNATI, July 26 —(AP)—

Police early today were holding a young Cincinnati Negro for questioning in a fatal drug store shooting yesterday.

They identified the Negro as serve out the unexpired term of her late husband, Rep. Frank Buchanan.

Mrs. Buchanan captured 32,226 votes in 180 of the 33rd congressional district's 227 voting precincts compared to 18,956 for her Republican opponent, Clifford W. Flegal, 30.

Ruben Flint, 21, but said no charge had been placed against him. They added, however, that Flint, arrested late yesterday at the home of a friend, faces an assault and battery warrant filed against him May 18.

The victim, 68-year-old Frederick H. Schmidt, was on duty at the Kattman Drug Store when shot to death. Two scalp wounds indicated the clerk was pistol-whipped before the fatal shot was fired.

In 1849 Walter Hunt, an American, invented the "miracle fastener"—the safety pin—and in 1891 Whitcomb Judson produced the clasp locker, which, improved, became the zipper.

Sheriff Hays Offers Some Safety Hints

Traffic Expected To Break All Records During Summer

In calling attention to the fact that about three-fourths of all vacations are in July and August, Sheriff Orland Hays suggested to motorists today to see that their cars are in good mechanical condition.

He advised motorists not to drive too fast during vacation days.

Sheriff Hays said that since school closed traffic has increased tremendously in every state. Ohio offers six east and west and eight north-south U. S. routes, which people from other states will probably choose to reach destinations beyond the state.

This means a great many out-of-state visitors will use these routes, three of which pass through Washington C. H.—U. S. 35, U. S. 22 and U. S. 62.

Sheriff Hays said that July and August will put more vehicles on the highways than ever before. Sometimes there will be more than a given stretch of road can accommodate unless all drivers play fair and are patient when the inevitable delays arise.

"Traffic accidents are 7% higher than in 1950, outside of Ohio," Sheriff Hays said. "Our rate is still below the 1950 figures—a distinction we may not enjoy much longer, because we're creeping closer and closer to the rate of a year ago. Outside drivers will affect our rate some, but the fact is that Ohio drivers are responsible for most of Ohio's accident."

The sheriff is disturbed by the increase in rural traffic accidents and those occurring after dark. The rural rate is almost one and a half times that of urban traffic while the night accident rate is three times the daylight figure.

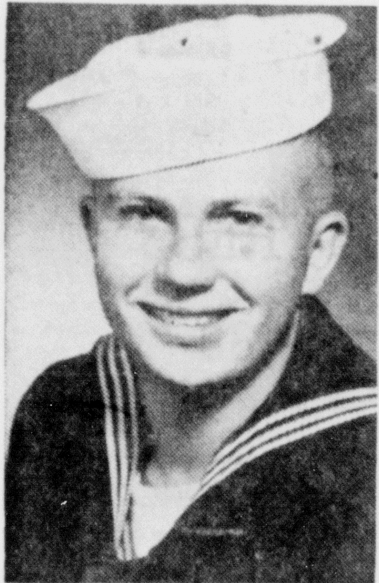

"Last year there were 320 fatal traffic accidents on Ohio highways during July and August; 217 of these were on rural highways. The open road seems to invite a lot of us to step on it."

Not all of us exceed the legal speed limit; we exceed the safe speed, follow too close, insist on right of way at the wrong time, pass improperly or drive on the wrong side of the road; it all adds up to "too big a hurry—too much speed."

When driving in other states, Ohioans should discover what the speed limit is, observe all signs, markings and signals. If you are in doubt ask any police officer or sheriff. He will welcome the opportunity to explain how their laws differ from Ohio's code.

Former Resident Serves on Ship

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Van Pelt, 1024 East Market Street, have received word that their grandson, Donald Wyatt, is now serving aboard the U.S.S. Leyte, an aircraft carrier in the Atlantic.

DONALD WYATT

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wyatt (Marguerite Van Pelt), former residents of Washington C. H. before moving to Wilmington.

Young Wyatt enlisted in the Navy after graduation from Kingman High School and received his recruit training at San Diego, Calif. He received further training as an aviation machinist mate at the U. S. Naval Air Technical Training School at Memphis, Tenn.

Upon graduation from the Tennessee school he was assigned to

Timely Books Received Here

Two timely books on Korea, "War in Korea" by Marguerite Higgins and "The Koreans and Their Culture" by Cornelius Osgood have been received by the Carnegie Public Library.

The former book gives a word picture of events and emotions in Korea in a style which approaches the technique of Ernie Pyle. "The Koreans and Their Culture" begins with a description of contemporary farming in Korea, a picture of the ruling class in Seoul and then turns back the clock through the political history of a century few Americans know. The author is professor of anthropology at Yale.

A fascinating tale of life inside China is told in the book "The China Story" by Freida Utley, British born, U. S. naturalized ex-Communist whose husband vanished in the purges of the 30s. She writes like a seasoned first-hand reporter who pulls no punches.

"The New Turks," by Eleanor Bisby is the picture of Turkey since World War I. Nothing of the country of the fez or harems, veiled ladies or romances appear in this book. It describes a westernized democracy in which both men and women are active in business and enjoy pleasures and school similar to our own.

Another book about the Soviets is "Eleven Years in a Soviet Prison Camp" by Elinor Lipper, a German Jewish Communist who tells a story of Russia since 1937.

Husband-hunter Picks Old Friend From 200 Suitors

VICKSBURG, Mich., July 26—(AP)—Mrs. Jean Gregory, the husband-hunting divorcee, passed up 200 proposals to accept that of her truck-driving, long-time boy friend, Lewis Kline, of Three Rivers, Mich.

They were married Tuesday at Angola, Ind., by Justice Harvey E. Shoup.

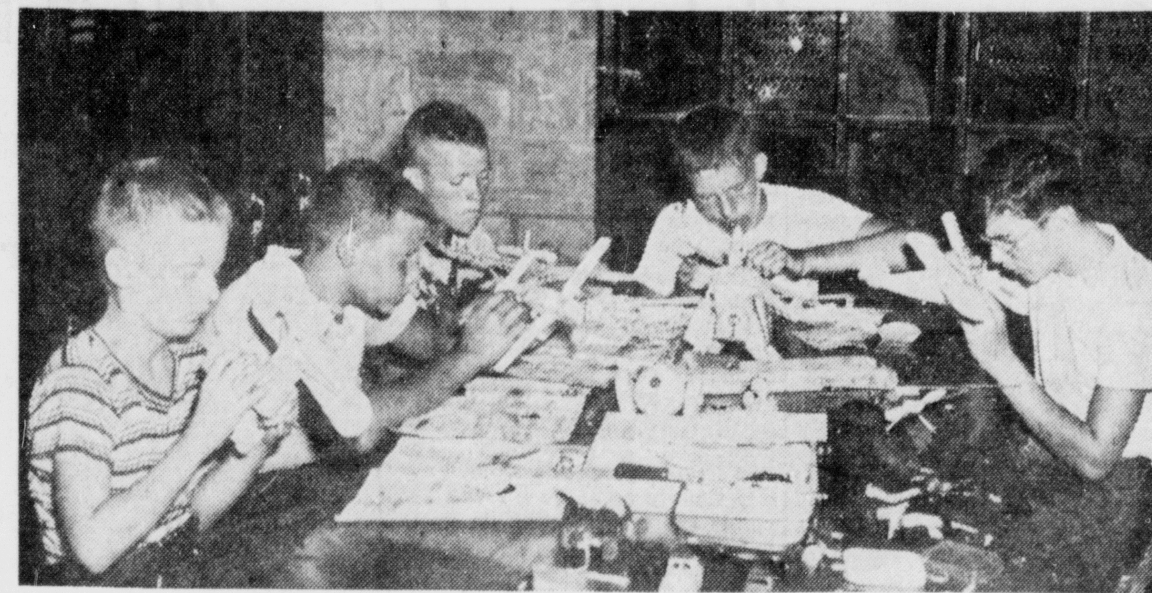

Mrs. Gregory walked into a newspaper office a couple of weeks ago, accompanied by her three children, and announced: "I need a husband."

She was unable, she said, to care for her brood and a cancer-stricken mother, and promised "to make a good wife" for anyone able to support the family and pay her mother's hospital bills.

Proposals poured in by mail and telephone. She gave three of them the once-over at meetings Saturday, but they didn't suit her. A Wyoming trapper was among the volunteers. So was a mail carrier.

Youngsters Here Fix Up Yule Toys

The city recreation department here has started a program full of paradoxes.

For one thing, kids enrolled in the program are helping other kids not so fortunate.

Then they are working on Christmas toys in the midst of summer heat and humidity.

Odd thing about this stroke of generosity is that the kids are learning something useful. They are handling tools and learning how to use their hands to make simple repairs.

Ronald Guinn, co-director of the city recreation program this summer, is in charge of the program. He said everything is going well with the program, except that more toys are needed.

Guinn urges people with toys to call the recreation department telephone (6191) and arrange for someone to stop around and pick up the toys or simply stop at Gardner Field and drop them off at

Farm Program Cut Beaten in Senate

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—An attempt to chop nearly $13,000,000 out of the billion-dollar agriculture department money bill was beaten in the Senate.

Senator Dirksen (D-Ill.) had proposed cutting operating funds for the soil conservation service from $53,474,991 to $40,600,000.

He charged there was wasteful duplication and over-lapping in the various agriculture department agencies handling the conservation program.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), floor manager for the farm bill, opposed the slash and, with less than 20 senators present and only a few voting, the proposal was defeated without a record vote.

Undaunted, Dirksen then proposed reducing to $150,000,000 to $280,000,000 authorization for payments to farmers taking part in the soil conservation program. "Farmers can sacrifice," Dirksen said, adding that the payments to 3,100,000 participating farmers averaged only about $85 each.

He said the $150,000,000 limit had been suggested by President Allan Kline of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

the recreation department's office in the field house.

All kinds of toys are needed--from miniature wagons to dolls. Recently the recreation department ordered three dozen model plane sets and the youths assembled them.

When the youths have repaired the toys, they will turn them over to the American Legion.

Each year the American Legion holds a party for needy youngsters and distributes the toys.

Wool Price Drop Reaction Slow

Cost of Clothing
May Go Down too

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—A sharp drop in wool goods prices this week could mean your next spring's suit will be cheaper. The clothing makers, however, say it will have no effect on the price of fall lines.

Weakness in the wool market is highlighted by the army's success this week in getting more than three million yards of all-wool serge at prices averaging $2.25 a yard lower than the peaks quoted on the March deliveries.

The quartermaster purchasing agency says it was swamped with offers and apparently will be able to buy all it needs at less than $4.69 a yard. Some of the bids were as low as $4.39 a yard.

At the same time one of the country's largest carpet mills, James Lees & Sons, cut its all-wool carpeting by 5 to 10 percent. Its second price slash in 30 days. At the opening of the Chicago home furnishings show in June Lees cut prices there to 10 percent. Several other carpet makers cut prices at same time. And slowness in the textile industry generally is being highlighted by production curtailments at many mills. Some cotton textile mills have extended their vacation schedules. Others are resuming production again but either eliminating one of the shifts or cutting down the number of days of operation in a week. Rayon mills are following much the same pattern. Woolen mills have been working on army orders almost exclusively for weeks now.

RANDOLPH SCOTT, DAVID BRIAN and Phyllis Thaxter (shown above) take the stellar roles in the Technicolor Warner Bros. outdoor adventure drama, "Fort Worth," that opens a two-day run at the Fayette Theater Sunday.

Cotton and rayon prices are weak as all concerned watch the peace talks in Korea, and their possible effects on the industry, where inventories were already heavy.

Textron, Inc., announces today that in August retail stores will be offering one of its brands of cotton piece goods for home-sewers at around 20 percent cheaper, following Textron's similar cut today in wholesale prices on the cloth. Textron says the fabrics will be back to the pre-Korean level with the new cuts.

Reaction To Be Slow

Wool's tumble from its all-time high price in March will have little effect on fall suit prices, leaders in the trade insist. But some say it would help next spring, since they think they'll be able to buy fabrics for 20 percent less than they paid last fall when they started to make this spring's suits. Few suit makers, however, bought wool goods at the peak March prices. Most of them bought their fabrics well below that peak. Spokesman say the price cuts indicated in the bidding for army business really brings wool fabrics back down to about the levels the suit makers paid and therefore "does not indicate a decrease in the value of present inventories."

Bumper Harvests
Have an Antidote

NEW YORK, July 26.—(AP)—Bumper harvests are in prospect in many parts of the country. But food processors are counting on the rising total of personal incomes to keep sales volume high in the nation's grocery stores this winter.

Americans like to eat well. The better their incomes the more they spend, as a rule, at the grocery, housewives swing up and down, the food economy scale as their husbands' take-home pay rises or falls.

Full employment and higher wage scales, the food processors say, should take care of the new big crops, although a few see hopes that abundance may mean that prices can drop nearer to the pre-Korean level.

Retail grocery sales are now reported running at an annual rate of around $35 billion. Even price resistance to some more expensive items hasn't cut total purchases of consumers back much this summer, spokesmen for the grocery trade say. The large retail units report dollar volume running about seven percent above last year, largely reflecting post-Korean price rises.

Inventory Problems
Wholesale grocers, however, are having their inventory problems, similar to those in other industries, but not nearly so acute as in some. "The only burdensome inventories threatened in foods," says the American Institute of Food Distribution, "are among some canners and freezers. But analysis of the startling increase in consumer buying power emphasizes that any extreme pressure on food prices may be due to merchandising blunders."

Grocers are selling to so many more families with annual incomes over $3,000 that there has been an unexpected increase in demands for better quality foods in wider variety, the institute holds.

Federal statistics would seem to bear this out, both as to how incomes have grown and widened out through the economy, and as to how Americans spend their money in the grocery.

Ten years ago 5.8 million families had annual incomes of more than $3,000, but today 27 million families have. Even taking into account the higher prices, this still leaves a large total income to be spent at the grocery. And, also, there are 14 million more families now than in 1941 in the nation. That accounts for much of the growth in retail food store sales from $12.5 billion in 1941 to nearly $35 billion today.

What Statistics Show
Federal Reserve Board figures show how family food buying increases as incomes go up. Families with incomes above $3,000 spend about twice as much as those with less than $1,000, although the latter group hands over 74 percent of its income to the grocer.

For every dollar that the family with the lowest income spends, a family in the $3,000 to $4,000 class spends $1.90. While families with incomes of $7,500 and over spend $2.63 at the grocers for each $1 the lowest group spends. Only 17 percent of the highest group's income goes for food, however.

Rise in industrial pay scales has played a major role in making America as a whole eat better—and in many cases get more in relation to the hours spent at labor.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics compares the minutes of work required by industrial workers to purchase certain food units. It says that now the worker must labor longer to be able to buy steak, pork chops, coffee and flour than he did in 1939. But he works fewer minutes now than in 1939 to be able to buy white bread, bacon, butter, milk, eggs, potatoes and sugar.

And the bureau reports today that weekly earnings of factory workers have gone up $6.59 in the last year. It is these gains, raising the number of persons in the $3,000 a year and over class, that enables Americans to eat better—no matter how much the high price of food pains them.

The U. S. Government established the Pony Express in 1860 for fast communication between the older states and California. It was succeeded 16 months later by a telegraph line.

In the Fourth and Fifth Centuries the title "pope" was frequently used for bishops, but gradually became reserved for the Bishop of Rome.

ter how much the high price of food pains them.

Farmers Told Reports Must Be In This Month

Social Security On Regular Hired Help Is Due in July

Those farmers who have not already done so must file social security tax returns for this quarter, covering their regular hired help, by the end of July.

These returns are to cover the April, May and June quarter. Regular hired help is defined by C. C. Darby, manager of the Columbus office of the Ohio Social Security Administration, to avoid misunderstanding.

Fayette County is in the district governed by the Columbus office. The definition as to what is regarded as regular hired help, as given out by the Columbus office, is a worker on a farm, or in a farm household who meets both of the following conditions:

(1) He must have been employed by the farmer continuously for a full calendar quarter. No tax is due for agricultural labor performed in this qualifying quarter.

(2) In the next quarter he is employed by the same farmer in agricultural labor on a full time basis for at least 60 days, and his cash wages for these services are $50 or more.

Farm owners and operators who have regular hired help and have not yet registered for filing the quarterly social security tax returns should do so immediately, said Mr. Darby, in order that they may get on the mailing list for receiving the tax forms automatically every quarter.

Regular farm hands who have never had social security account numbers or who have lost their social security cards should apply for new ones or duplicates as the case may be, said Mr. Darby.

A woman who does housework in a farm household is considered the same as a hired hand as far as reporting for social security purposes is concerned. In other words, she must meet the same requirements as a hired man to be considered regularly employed.

For those hired farm workers who meet the requirements of the new law this government insurance provides monthly payments to them and their dependents when the workers retire after reaching age 65 and payments to their families when they die.

Fayette Grange Wins Top Display Honors

Fayette Grange was awarded top honors among the six subordinate Granges for its exhibit at the Fair this year. And, it took down the lion's share of the $240 appropriated by the Agricultural Society to be divided among the sextet in proportion to the points scored.

Ranked behind Fayette Grange on the point score sheet were Madison Good Will, Good Hope, Forest Shade, Selden and Marshall.

Scoring was on this basis: 20 points for general appearance in attracting attention, presenting the Grange idea and balance; 55 points for material to show Grange teachings, achievements, quality, attractiveness in name design and labeling and workmanship; 25 points for effectiveness in showing originality of idea, community service and cooperation with other organizations.

Brazil has a cotton textile industry protected by a high tariff wall and by preferences, in export policies, for manufactured goods over raw cotton.

Honors Split Up In Baked Goods

Appetizing Entries Made at County Fair

Honors in the baked goods department were fairly well distributed among housewives in the county.

Their entries, put under lock and key from hungry Fair visitors, showed that the art of baking has not been lost among Fayette Countians.

Each class was not completely filled with entries, but the entries which were made showed considerable originality. The appetizing appearance of the cakes, cookies and candy was proof that the baked goods and candy department was not missing in quality.

Judging the exhibits was Mrs. Carl Pickering of Jamestown.

Check on Official Cars Urged by Rep. Brown

WASHINGTON, July 26—(AP)—

Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) yesterday

introduced a bill in the House to place the general services administrator in charge of non-military government passenger automobiles, furniture and other equipment. Brown said his bill was prompted by recent criticism of the number of passenger autos used by executive agencies, and of the use of cars by unauthorized persons.

Selling of Girls In China Assailed

TAIPEH, Formosa, July 26—(AP)—

"The Foster Daughter Protection Association" was formed Tuesday to work for abolition of the centuries-old Chinese system of selling girls into slavery.

The association will seek government support.

Girls sold into slavery by poor parents are called foster daughters by the families buying them and are used as unpaid domestic servants.

On reaching maturity, many are sold as prostitutes or concubines. There are an estimated 120,000 slave girls in Formosa.

The word "pin money" originated in the 14th century when pins were so expensive manufacturers sold them in open shops only two days a year and husbands provided their wives with money for this luxury.

By the age of 45, about one in every ten Americans has some chronic illness of major disability, a survey indicates.

Gay Rose and Patsy Divide Honors in Two-year-old Pace

Gay Rose, owned by Wendell Kirk of New Holland and Patsy, owned by C. D. Cessna of Kenton divided the honors just about equally in the $1,500 "Dr. Parshall Memorial" stake for two-year-old pacers that was the feature race of the opening day's program of the four-day harness racing program of the Fair here Wednesday afternoon.

The only difference was that Patsy's mile was just 2-5ths of a second faster than Gay Rose's.

Gay Rose, with McKinley Kirk, Washington C. H. owner-trainer-driver, at the reins, won the first dash in 2:10.2 and Patsy, driven by Clayton Cox, won the second in 2:10 flat.

That 2-5ths of a second gave the top spot in the summary to Patsy; for while she was second to Gay Rose in the first dash, Gay Rose finished second in the second dash.

Each won her race by moving into the stretch in front and holding the advantage to the wire.

Kirk trained Gay Rose and Ernie Smith trained Patsy at the Fairground here; thus it was a big day for the hometown fans who saw what amounted to hometown horses take the feature event.

Smith was driving his own Kristie Brewer in the same race and finished third.

SO IMPRESSIVELY did Gay Rose win the first dash to pay $4.60 to win in the mutuels that Patsy returned $9 for $2 straight in the second dash.

It was a near-capacity crowd that filled all but the upper reaches of the grandstand for the first day of Fair racing.

The day was not marred by a single serious mishap. The nearest thing to it was the snapping of a hobble by Willing and Able in the second dash of the "Dr. Parshall Memorial". The colt, owned by O. O. Burt of Londonderry, was moving up fast on the outside in the first quarter under Hugh Beatty's handling when the hobble broke.

The second dash of the 28 class trot and the first dash of the three-year-old trot were the fastest of the afternoon.

Graham's Flicka, owned by Rollo Graham of Marysville, went the mile of the 28 class trot in 2:9 flat. She had gone the first mile in 2:11.1. The veteran campaigner raced without shoes.

Risen Sun, owned by Lewis Ryan of Delta, duplicated Graham's Flicka's time in the first dash of the three-year-old trot, but he finished second to Prince Philip, owned by O. C. Belt of Columbus, in the second in 2:9.2. Risen Sun was driven by C. Young and Prince Philip by Doc McMillen.

Darnling, from the J & M Stable of Washington C. H. was third in both dashes of the three-year-old trot.

ODDLY ENOUGH, the slowest race of the afternoon produced the most exciting finish. That was when Bitty Sue came from behind with a rush in the last 50 yards to nip Parachute right at the wire after a mile trip in 2:20.2.

Bitty Sue, the winner of the first dash, too, was driven by Forrest Short of Columbus. She is owned by Harry Short. Parachute, is owned and driven by Harold Laymon of Sabina, finished second in the first dash. She had cut the pace almost from the start but had never been able to shake loose from Bitty Sue's threat.

A field of 11 horses, the biggest of the afternoon, faced the starter for the first division of the 28 class pace. The second division

Big Turnout On Ladies Day

It was "Ladies Day" at the Country Club here again Wednesday with golfing in the morning and a luncheon at noon in the club house.

With interest on the upswing, in both the golf and social aspects of the gatherings, the response for this third "ladies day" was the best yet.

The next party has been scheduled for Aug. 8 with Mrs. Wayne Shobe and Mrs. Everett Waddell handling the arrangements.

In Wednesday's golfing Mrs. Shobe took low score honors with a 54; Mrs. Jess Carter had the fewest putts, 15; Mrs. Waddell had the best poker hand score; Mrs. Charlotte Zimmerman took the booby prize and Mrs. Mary Wade won the blind bogey.

New World Record For Fillies Is Set

HARRINGTON, Del., July 26 —(P)—A new world record for two-year-old pacing fillies over a half-mile track is in the books today because of the performance of the fleet Royal Mist.

Under the guidance of Bill Fleming the daughter of Royal Napoleon stepped the mile in 2:05 at the Harrington Fair yesterday to cut one and two-fifths seconds off the standard set by Floating Dream at Troy, Ohio, last year.

Royal Mist, bred at Gage Ellis' Village Farms, Langhorne, Pa., is owned by Joe Hyman of Norristown, Pa., and Franklin Hastings of Berlin, Md.

Yanks Hold Lead In AL Scramble

Chisox Beat Bosox To Aid New Yorkers

BY JACK HAND

(By The Associated Press) If Cleveland wins the American League pennant, they'll never believe it in Yankee Stadium.

The tribal warwhoop is only an empty echo in the Yanks' concrete wigwam on the Harlem where Cleveland has lost 13 straight ball games since July 14, 1950.

It was the same story last summer. After the shocking series in Boston where the Indians blew 7-0 and 12-1 leads, Cleveland staggered into the Yankee Stadium to lose four in a row. They came to town two games out of first place and finished up 5½ behind in fourth place.

Failure to whip the Yanks in New York has been almost as costly this season. They've dropped eight straight '51 with only three to play.

Big John Mize was the villain in the Indians' current disaster. His eighth-inning homer won the opener Tuesday, 3-2, and his ninth-inning double punched home both runs of yesterday's 2-1 verdict over tough luck Mike Garcia.

BECAUSE CHICAGO snapped its five-game losing streak and whipped Boston at Fenway Park, 6-2, the Yankees opened up to a full game lead on the Red Sox. Cleveland is another game back and the White Sox are 3½ off the pace.

In sharp contrast to this wild struggle, the National remains a Brooklyn waltz with the Dodgers, 6-2 over Chicago, now nine full games in front of New York which won a June 17 "suspended game" from Pittsburgh, 7-6 in 10 innings but lost the regularly scheduled contest, 5-4.

Ned Garver won No. 13 for the last-place St. Louis Browns who have taken only 23 all season. The talented right-hander held Philadelphia to seven hits for a 5-4 edge in a night game at Shibe Park. Washington hopped on Freddie Hutchinson and three successors for 14 hits and a 7-4 decision over Detroit.

Preacher Roe, edging toward his first 20-game year, won his 14th

State Champs Beaten By French Team Here

Last year's state softball champions were handed a rude and unexpected upset on Wilson Field here Wednesday night when the Frenchmen of the Washington C. H. Recreation League trounced them 6 to 3 in half a double feature.

It was the first defeat suffered by the Champion Paper Co. team from Hamilton, the defending champions, in 20 games this season.

The fair-sized crowd went wild with excitement and surprise.

And the surprises came early. Each team scored 3 runs in the first inning and it looked like a big night was ahead. But after that the Champs were done.

The Frenchmen took a one-run lead in the second inning and made it stand up. The icing was put on their cake, however, in the sixth they added a couple more.

Anderson pitched a masterful game for the Frenchmen, holding the Champs to three hits, one a lousy homer by Brunner. He fanned four.

Neither Turner nor Fannin could stop the Frenchmen. Although they got only five safeties, they got them when they counted.

A leaky 5-error defense did not help the cause of the Champs. By contrast, the Frenchmen played fast ball in the field and made only one miscue.

THE CHAMPIONS finished the evening in Washington C. H., however, with an even break after blanking the Welders, 3 to 0, in the other half of the twin bill.

The Hamilton boys started out by downing Chicago, 6-2. It was the 12th complete game for the Dodgers' ace lefty.

Robin Roberts racked up his second straight shutout for the Phillies, holding St. Louis to four singles for a 2-0 victory.

World Record Set By Scottish Pence

WESTBURY, N. Y., July 26 —(P)—The mile and one-half world record for pacers stands today at three minutes and six seconds with Scottish Pence credited with clipping two full seconds off the old mark.

The six-year old from the Castleton Farms of Lexington, Ky., hung up the new standard last night at Roosevelt's Raceway's grand circuit meeting in winning the $10,000 U. S. Harness Writers' pace.

Driven by Curly Smart, Scottish Pence stepped the first mile in 2:06 2/5 and the last half in 59 3/5 seconds for a four-length victory over the Saunders Mills Stormyway of Toledo, Ohio.

Before Scottish Pence turned in his performance, W. N. Reynolds' Betsy Volo lost some of her standing for the rich Hambletonian eligible in the $5,000 victory song trot for three-year-olds. Royal Blood was clocked in 2:06 4/5.

Contact Practice Starts for Browns

BOWLING GREEN, July 26 —(P)—Contact work starts today at the training base where the Cleveland Browns are getting set to defend their professional football championship.

Until now—by league rules—practice has been limited to skull work, dealing out uniforms, posing for photographers and weighing in.

A real scrimmage is still about a week or 10 days away for the club, but even the first contacts will give Coach Paul Brown and his line assistant—Fritz Heiser—a chance to start looking over the talent.

Plenty of good unused horsepower in the good used trucks on our lots!

NEW YORK, July 26—(P)—A regular series of inter-denominational religious programs will be carried on Sunday by NBC television starting September 30. They are to come from various cities. Some will originate from places of worship where facilities can be installed, others from studios.

An announcement said that "out of every six telecasts, three will be Protestant, two Catholic and one Jewish, approximately in proportion to the numerical strength of the three faiths in this country."

The emphasis is to be on sermons and religious music. Leading clergymen will be asked to participate. The telecasts will have the half-hour at 1 P. M. Eastern Standard Time.

Joe Kelly, away from his assignment as quizmaster of the Quiz Kids, a post he has held since the start of the program before the war, is reported to continue to convalesce from an illness that took him out of the show in mid-May. At present he is at his home at Watervliet, Mich., to which he has just returned from the hospital. He had an operation a week ago.

Kelly hopes to be able to get back to his programs on NBC the early part of August. Guests have been conducting both the radio series on Sundays and the TV of Fridays. They have included Fran Allison from Kullia, Fran and Ollie and the Breakfast Club, as well as Clifton Uley, a Chicago newscaster.

When Gang Busters of CBS radio on Saturday nights adds a CBS-TV version on Tuesday nights beginning September 4, it will have Rudolph Halley, a former chief counsel for the Senate crime investigating committee, as narrator. Gang Busters, a Phillips H. Lord production, specializes in stories of solutions of actual criminal cases. Summer replacement for Four Star Revue on NBC-TV which is returning in mid-September, is to move to Saturday nights from Wednesday nights. It is to be an hour of music and art from the National Gallery at Washington. Richard Bayles will direct, with two intermission periods devoted to exhibits in the gallery. Kate Smith is slated to take over this time in the fall with a night variety series as an addition to her afternoon program five times a week.

Acheson Warns Against Let-down

DETROIT, July 26—(P)—The United States and its Allies must put forth "several years of very hard effort" to build a shield against nine million Communists under arms, Secretary of State Acheson declared last night.

"Whether or not an armistice results from the talks in Korea," he said, "the fundamental job ahead of us will not change."

Warning against a letdown in defense efforts, Acheson said: "If we shirk the hard course, the alternatives are war or surrender."

"The prospect may hard and long, he said. 'It may mean more sacrifices for us, more shortages, higher taxes. But there is no easier way through the dangers of the present.'"

Acheson spoke at a gay banquet in the newly erected Veterans Memorial Building on the riverfront celebrating Detroit's 250th birthday.

Ohio Carrier Wing Slated for Europe

GREENVILLE, S. C., July 26—(P)—The 433rd troop carrier wing—composed of men from 60 Ohio counties—was scheduled to leave for Europe today to join General Eisenhower's North Atlantic Treaty organization forces.

The 433rd, stationed at nearby Donaldson Air Base, is the first new aviation unit to be added to Eisenhower's forces. Its mission is to transport troops and supplies in combat, dropping them by parachute or making landings.

The bulk of the 1,500 personnel of the wing have left the field to make the trip by water. The remainder are flying.

Campaign Slogan Not Convincing

DANVILLE, Pa., July 26—(P)—Farmer Harry Roup, who campaigned for the Republican nomination for Montour County commissioner on a one-sentence platform, took a lacing at the polls.

Roup lost to incumbents Ike Patton and J. William Getty by a lopsided margin in yesterday's primary election.

The farmer had placed an advertisement in the Danville Morning News which promised: "I won't treat you any worse than anybody else you put in this office."

TV of Fights To Homes in Prospect Now

NEW YORK, July 26—(P)—Television set makers who joined to buy video rights to the Walcott-Charles fight expressed satisfaction today with the results and made plans to outbid theater TV on future big events.

Eight of the biggest TV manufacturers put up $10,000 for the rights in order to telecast it to home viewers in 46 cities over the DuMont network. Eighteen theaters, which had obtained exclusive rights for theater showings of two previous major fights, went up to $65,000 for the Walcott-Charles bout and then dropped out of the bidding.

Chris J. Witting, director of the DuMont network which engineered the deal, said:

"There was so much enthusiasm by the stations, and such a good reception by the viewers, we certainly will bid on the next two outstanding fights."

The DuMont network is operated by Allen B. DuMont Laboratories, major set maker. Other manufacturers expressed similar views.

There was no immediate reaction from the TV-equipped theaters, but they were huddling over their next move.

Toledo Cager Caught in Fix May Be Ousted

TOLEDO, July 26—(P)—Toledo University's athletic board meets today on the Bob McDonald case, and may toss him out of school, but present prospects are Toledo will hold fast to its 29-game basketball schedule for the coming season.

The first game on the schedule is with Niagara, to be played Nov. 28 at Niagara.

It was a contest with this school last December in Toledo that drew the University into the current basketball fix scandal.

The athletic board's meeting was called by University President Asa S. Knowles, who flew back here from a vacation in Maine.

McDonald has been working as a senior player in city parks this summer, but City Welfare Director Arthur Grapot intimated he may be fired.

Basketball Coach Jerry Bush said the University will "carry on," though the revelation in New York has "hit like an avalanche."

William Walker and Carlo Muzi, the other two implicated, were co-captains and seniors last year.

It Could Happen Only in Brooklyn

BROOKLYN, July 26—(P)—Some 35,000 horns will blow on the night of Aug. 13 in Ebbets Field—if Brooklyn Dodgers President Walter F. O'Malley has his way.

The big blast—demurely tabbed "music appreciation night"—will be a protest against union silencing of the Dodger "Symphony," a sextet that has been discordant and proud of it.

The "Sym-phony" played for free at all Dodger home games. Then Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians horned in. The union said two of the sextet players are 802 members and can't play without being paid. The "Sym-phony" has been silent the last three Dodger home games.

But come Aug. 13, O'Malley says, "everybody bring a musical instrument."

Robert Haynie Is Pulled from Quarry

Robert Haynie, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haynie, 812 Clinton Avenue, Washington C. H., had a narrow escape from possible drowning in an abandoned stone quarry in Columbus, Wednesday afternoon.

Alert work on the part of two fellow swimmers, Robert Gierhart, 16, and Lee Skaggs, 25, both of Columbus, saved Haynie.

The pair pulled him out of the deep water, and a crew of firemen arrived on the scene and applied artificial respiration and used an inhalator on Haynie for 20 minutes.

He was immediately taken to White Cross Hospital, where his condition late Wednesday night was said to be "favorable".

Lt. William F. Drago of the Columbus emergency squad said Gierhart dove into the deep quarry several times before reaching Haynie.

Haynie and his father have both been working in Columbus, and the son roomed at a home located at 418 East Maynard Avenue.

Mrs. Haynie left for Columbus Thursday morning to visit with her son. Neither she nor her husband heard about the mishap until several hours after it happened.

The stone quarry where Haynie was swimming is located back of the 1000 block on Dublin Road, and reports indicated that Haynie went swimming there frequently during the afternoons.

Meat Dealers Need Not Post Prices

Pending final action by Congress on extension of price control legislation, the Office of Price Stabilization today suspended until further notice the requirement that retail meat dealers post their beef ceiling prices.

OPS had previously postponed the posting rate to August 1. However, uncertainty as to congressional action makes it inadvisable to order the printing of meat price posters at this time.

Today's action in no way affects the requirement that all retail prices for beef must be listed on the tray in which the cuts are displayed and that these prices must be at or below ceilings. Also, kosher beef retailers who have been required to post their prices since June 11 must continue to display their lists.

Alert Work by Jeff Volunteers Puts Out Blaze

Quick work by volunteers of the Jeffersonville fire department prevented a tractor which caught fire on the farm operated by Lyle Lambert on the Armstrong-Jeffersonville Road from being destroyed.

Shortly after a short caused a fire in the radiator section of the tractor the fire department was summoned. They were promptly on the scene, and used a blanket of foam to smother the blaze.

When the fire broke out the tractor was parked near a shed on the farm. There was danger for a time of the fire spreading to the shed and other buildings on the farm.

Lyle Lambert is in Memorial Hospital in a serious condition and a request has been made by the family that the news of the tractor fire be kept from him at this time. The fire occurred about 10:20 o'clock Thursday morning.

His two sons are operating the farm for him.

ington C. H., was stopped on Leesburg Avenue at Fairview Avenue, for reported excessive use of his auto horn about 8 P. M. Following an altercation with the arresting officer, he was taken to police headquarters, and posted $50 bond for his appearance.

Wagner claimed the officer was not in uniform and became abusive and also tore off part of his new shirt. The officer claimed that Wagner used improper language and struck him when he took hold of Wagner to take him into custody, after identifying himself as an officer.

Hearing of the charges was set for next Tuesday at 10 A. M.

World War Balked

"It is probable that one of the purposes of the attack was to break down--through such a failure--any possibility of effective UN action against aggression in the future." He added:

"The UN elected to act now rather than to drift passively once more down the fatal trail of failure to oppose aggression which leads finally to total war. Thousands of men have therefore sacrificed their lives in Korea to the end that millions may not lose their lives in a world war."

Noting that Communist propaganda has sought to represent the United States' part in the Korean war as "imperialism," Mr. Truman said:

"Our action x x x was not dictated by any American material interest there. We neither sought nor do we seek any special position or privilege in Korea. Our action in the crisis was motivated by our deep conviction of the importance of preventing a breakdown of the international security system and of the principles of the (UN) charter."

"I was convinced then, and I am convinced now, that to have ignored the appeal of Korea for aid, to have stood aside from the assault upon the charter, would have meant the end of the UN as a shield against aggression," Mr. Truman said. "It might have meant the end of any possibility that collective security could be made to work."

Livestock Slaughter

This provision would require the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) to abandon its present program of fixing the number of livestock animals individual packers may slaughter each month. OPS says the program is based on the total number of animals available and is designed to keep "fly-by-night" slaughterers from creating black markets by illegally bidding up prices beyond the ceiling.

Price Director Michael V. DiSalle has said elimination of slaughter quotas would jeopardize the entire stabilization program. Foes of the program contend, on the other hand, the effect of the program is to curtail meat production and encourage black markets.

The proposed ban on the program is only one part of bills to continue beyond July 31 the existing wage, price, rent and other economic controls--in most cases in modified form.
